The Nonsuch Inn

North Cheam

These London Road premises partly occupy the site of the once-well-known Granada cinema. The palatial building was officially opened in 1937 by the 'high-kicking, saucer-eyed' film star Jessie Matthews. The building is named after what was probably the greatest of Henry VIII's palaces which stood on the west side of today's Nonsuch Park. He built the palace to outshine his great rival, the King of France, declaring that there was none such like it!
