FOOD HYGIENE RATING

2024 - 2026

This two-storey building, in the heart of Middleton, was purpose built in the 1920s for the national menswear chain Burton. It later became a branch of Woolworths for around 20 years, before the store moved to the nearby shopping centre in the early 1970s. The premises are now named after Harbord Harbord, later Lord Suffield. An active lord of the manor, he leased land for development, transforming Middleton from a village into a town.
