Formerly a pub called Jackson's Wharf, this large two-storey building takes its name from its location on the marina's west quay. Located at the foot of the cliffs at Black Rock, east of the city centre, Brighton Marina was officially opened in 1979. The marina has since been developed in stages, acquiring its first public house (The Master Mariner) in 1987. Jackson's Wharf was granted planning permission in December 1998 and began trading soon after.
