The Ivy House

Alton

The Ivy House, at the west end of High Street, is a grade II listed building described as 'C18. Much altered in early C19, with later additions'. The Alton Society says that the empty property was 'refaced in the 18th century in Alton's only example of gothic style. The Ivy House and nearby Rawdon House are two of several 18th-century buildings in High Street. These two are former private residences lived in by the Dyer family, although neither building is ivy-clad today.
