FOOD

Main menu 11.30am - 11pm. Children's menu available.

This grade II listed building was erected in 1910 as a car showroom and offices for John Clayton Beadle. He started his business in nearby Lowfield Street, in 1894, with two employees, making horse-drawn vehicles. In 1900, he erected workshops on the south side of Spital Street and, in 1910, added a large single-storey showroom and offices. During the two World Wars, production at Beadles was geared to the war effort, which included making floats for Sunderland Flying Boats.
