

Press release
Wednesday 6 July 2022

Wetherspoon is launching a selection of summer drinks deals on Wednesday July 6.

It is reducing the price on a wide range of spirits, long drinks, beers and cider until Friday September 30.

The majority of Wetherspoon pubs will be offering the drinks at the same price, with city centre pubs pricing slightly higher.

The offers across the majority of pubs include a pitcher of classic Pimm's for £4.99 and an Aperol Spritz for £5.99 (100 ml Aperol, 200 ml Prosecco bottle and soda).

A number of gins (including Edinburgh Gin Rhubarb & Ginger and Beefeater Blood Orange) as well as a selection of vodkas (including AU Blue Raspberry Vodka and Smirnoff Raspberry Crush) and rums (including Dead Man's Fingers Pineapple) will be available for £1.99 (25ml measure, including a mixer).

Customers will be able to choose two drinks for £5 from a selection of bottled lagers, including Peroni, Estrella Galicia and Desperados and also from a choice of three flavoured Kopparberg bottled ciders. They can be mixed and matched.

And there will also be a choice of drinks which will be any three for £5 and also can be mixed and matched.

These include Camden Hells lager, Beck's, Bud Light strawberry and Passion fruit Seltzers.

As part of the summer drinks deals a pint of Kopparberg draught cider and a pint of Stowford Press Mixed Berries will each cost £1.99.

And a selection of flavoured vodka-based Schnapps also features in the summer drinks deal, with four 25 ml drinks available for £5.

Wetherspoon's chief executive John Hutson said: "We are always keen to offer our customers the best possible range of drinks at excellent value-for-money prices.

"As always staff will serve customers responsibly."

In line with licensing laws, multi-buy offers will not be available in Wetherspoon pubs in Scotland.

Prices may vary per pub. Excludes airport pubs.
